

Bonus Poster Assignment

For each of the following ideas, use all the things we have learned so far. Borders, clipart, photos, fonts, sizes, colors, symbols, etc. . .

1. Create a poster to put a sibling up for adoption! Remember, no one wants to adopt a whiney pain in the butt sibling! You will have to list all their good qualities to convince someone to adopt them!
2. Convince your parents that they should adopt one of your best friends so they can live with you! Do the same qualities as the previous poster.
3. Pretend you are older and allowed to date. Create a poster that would be your dating profile to pick up a new boyfriend or girlfriend. List your positive attributes so they will choose you over all the other fish in the sea!
4. Create a dating profile for your friend – with permission first! 😊
5. Create a marriage invitation for your friend. Tell us who they are marring, where and when, what the food is, etc. 😊
6. Create a poster convincing your parent to let you have a pet. List some facts about the pet, along with reasons you deserve to have this pet, as well as what you will do to take care of this pet.
7. Create a poster to hang up in the neighborhood advertising that you are available to babysit either children or pets. Make sure you include why you are qualified to do this, how much you charge, and how to contact you.
8. You broke out of Pirate Jail, stole Captain Larson's ship (The Eclipse) and need pirates to work on the ship. Create a Job Wanted poster telling us about the different jobs you are looking to fill and how much you will pay them.
9. If you have another suggestion for a topic, talk to Mr. Larson about it!

Put this in your portfolio!
